INTERNATIONAL ILLUSTRATION EXHIBITION

5th EDITION

2018

In Turin, in the pedestrian area of Via Montebello, from 23rd of June to 10th September 2018 it will be possible to visit the 5th edition of the exhibition of the International Illustration Contest That's a Mole!

That's a Mole is the international illustration contest born in 2013 to promote the most original and artistic interpretations of the visual symbol of the City of Turin, the Mole Antonelliana, starting from its shape. A qualified jury of artists and illustrators selected for the exhibition 29 artworks among the thousands that arrived from more than 60 different countries.

Among the selected artworks the following prizes and awards have been awarded:

- a € 1.000 prize for the winning artwork of the 5th edition;
- a €250 “Fermi tutti” Special Prize assigned by the Istituto Nazionale di Fisica Nucleare (INFN), section of Turin, as part of the celebrations of the 10th anniversary of the Fermi satellite;
- a €250 “Social Communication” Special Prize assigned by Casa di Carità Arti e Mestieri, connected to the project “In Pro.va - Probation valid alternative: community sanctions beyond prison”;
- 3 Special Mentions assigned by the City of Turin, by the National Museum of Cinema and the IED, Istituto Europeo di Design di Torino.

Finally, two artworks have been selected for the Educational Section among the authors younger than 18 years old and/or among the authors living in socio-educational realities (kindergartens, primary and secondary schools, educational centres and workshops for minors and people with disabilities).

The exhibition is made with the support of the students of professional school in light welding carpentry that Fondazione Casa di Carità Arti e Mestieri Onlus realizes at the “Santa Caterina” Detention House in Fossano (CN) - Project “Ferro & Fuoco jail design”.
